

At Christmas, we love to decorate our classrooms, and even better if the children can feel as though they contributed too.

Give your class these colour-in paper chains, then work together as a team to cut them out, link them, glue them after the dotted line and hang them up around the classroom.

